October 11 off-site BLO Luncheon

MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAN G.I.

The BLO will be taking an off-site bus trip to the Museum of the American G.I., a living history museum dedicated to preserving the equipment, uniforms and memories of all American Servicemen and women in College Station for our October luncheon meeting. The cost is $25 and includes admission, a presentation by the head of the museum, a self guided tour of the exhibits, a catered bar-b-que lunch and bus transportation.

Attendance will be limited to the first 100 to sign up. BLO's wonderful sponsors are helping to underwrite the executive coaches. Buses will leave Bentwater by 10:15 a.m. and return by 2 p.m.

The Museum is home to one of the finest collections of restored, running WWI, WWII and later era military vehicles including a WWI FT-17 tank, WWII Sherman tanks, M18 Hellcat, River Patrol Boat, and various other vehicles. Also on display is a collection of historic WWI and WWII propaganda posters as well as uniforms from WWI to Vietnam War worn by American Servicemen and women.

Please complete and turn at a BLO luncheon; send the form to Patricia Wright, 84 W. Shore Lane, Montgomery, TX 77356; or drop the form off at her home. Include a $25 check made out to BLO.
